

Issue 16, October 2023

Featured Publication

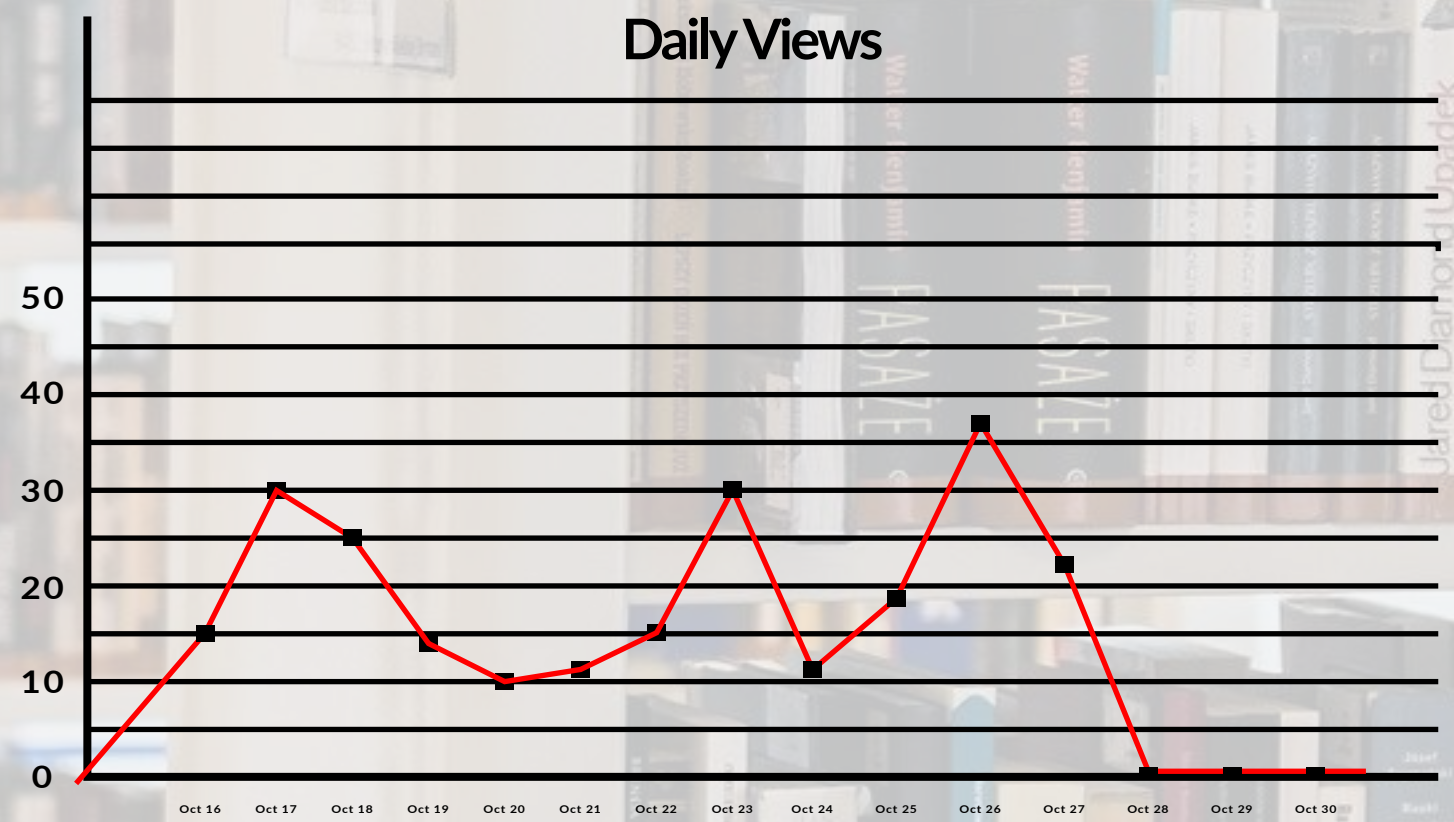

The Absa Africa Financial Markets Index evaluates countries financial development based on measures of market accessibility, openness and transparency. The aim is to show how economies can reduce barriers to investment and boost sustainable growth. The index now encompasses approximately 80% of the population and gross domestic product of Africa.

What do the numbers reveal?

Daily Views

Subprogrammes Logos