What do the experts think?

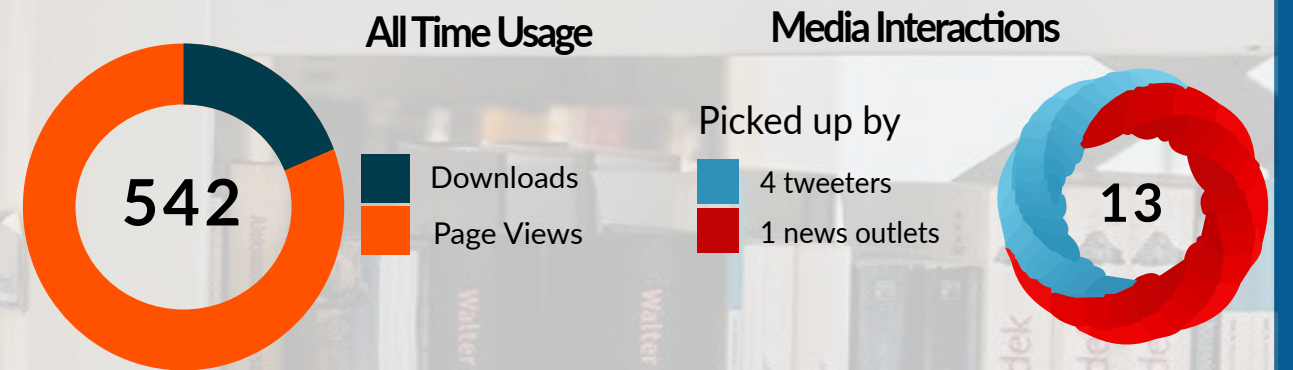

The Paris Agreement's Article 2.1c is the orienting goal for a concerted effort to make all forms of finance - public and private, domestic and international - and all instruments consistent with a pathway towards low greenhouse gas emissions and climate-resilient development.

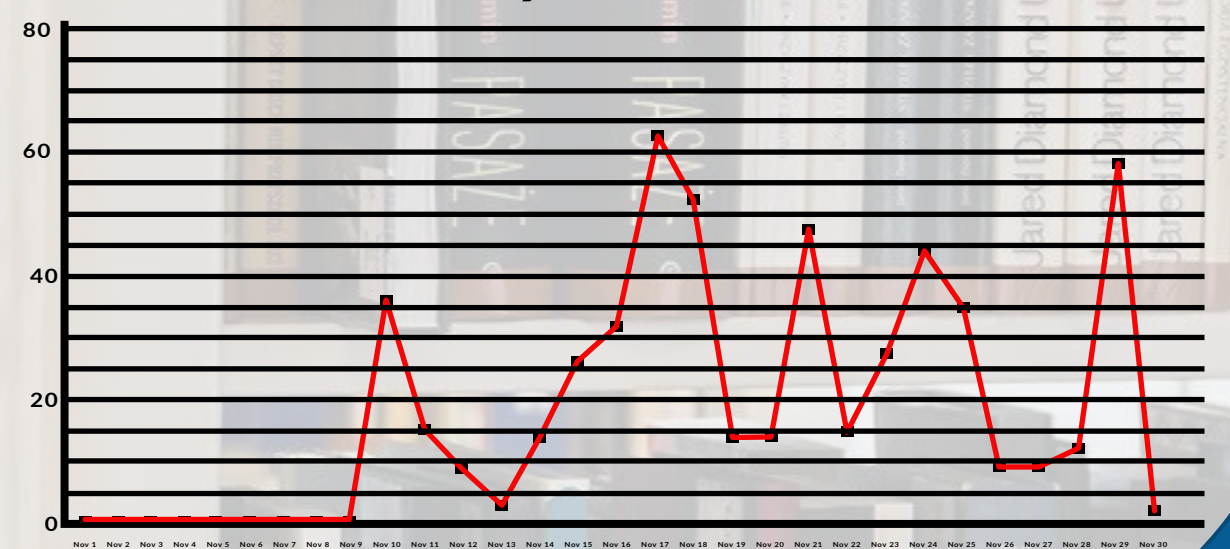

UN High-Level Expert Group on the Net-Zero Emissions Commitments on Non-State Entities.

This paper follows from the logic of delivering on the goals of the Paris Agreement and Glasgow Pact and also looks at the coming decade and beyond.
