BookTalk

The Knowledge and Library Services Section (KLSS) is pleased to announce the launch of its newest service, the 'BOOK TALK - Knowledge Sharing Series', an event organized by KLSS in collaboration with the Communication Section (CS) of PIKMD. The Book talk is a tailored service dedicated to promoting staff publishing. All staff members Commission-wide that have recently published or in the process of publishing are encouraged to contact KLSS to facilitate sharing of their work with their peers through the Knowledge Sharing Series.

Upcoming Booktalk!

The 1st BOOK TALK, a knowledge sharing event organized by PIKMD and coordinated by the Knowledge Services and Communications sections was presented by Mr. George Kararach, on the book he recently edited with Mr. Hany Besada, Mr. Timothy and Mr. Shaw titled "Development in Africa: Refocusing the lens after the Millennium Development Goals". Mr. Kararach is an Economic Affairs Officer in the Microeconomics Policy Division (MPD).

The 2nd BOOK TALK was presented by Mr. Robert Tama Lisinge on his dissertation for his PhD that he recently defended titled "Managing Africa's Regional Transport Infrastructure Programmes: Partnerships and Performance". Mr. Lisinge is Chief of Operational Quality Section in Strategic Planning and Operations Quality Division (SPOQD).
