Taking stock of COM2024 : Knowledge Sharing as a Driver to Accelerate a Green Transition

With the clock ticking towards 2030, on Wednesday, February 28, the 56th Conference of African Ministers of Finance, Planning & Economic Development (COM2024) opened its doors for a knowledge exchange exercise on accelerating Africa's transition into green economies.

The six-day event, held in Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe, served as a mechanism for knowledge transfer and exchange, exploring ways to redouble efforts to achieve the SDGs, accelerate the just transition to a green continent and fast-track the implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Area to boost economic growth.

At COM2024, knowledge sharing took centre stage as an important global development pillar in carving a structural development path that is just and aligns with the goals and aspirations of Agenda 2030 and 2063 respectively.

The knowledge fair presented ECA's in -country experience on stocktaking towards accelerating green transition and the lessons learnt. The booths visually showcased ECA's ideas for a prosperous Africa and its capacity to deliver on the ambitious 2030 and 2063 agendas.

Throughout COM2024, participants including Zimbabwe's Minister of Finance, Economic Development & Investment Promotion visited the booths.
